

OUTLOOK 2016

How To Backup and Restore Auto Fill Email Addresses.

Has your Outlook been Re-Installed Lately...? and the Pop-up Email Suggestions lost? This handy "pop-up" list can be lost after you re-install Outlook/Office 365.

First, Change View Options to "View Hidden Folders".

In Windows 7: My computer> Tools Tab> Folder Options> View Tab: Advanced settings: Click "Show hidden files, folders, and drives" radio button.

In Windows 10: This PC> View> Options> Change folder and search options> View tab> Click "Show hidden files, folders, and drives" radio button.

Here's How to Backup and Restore Autofill Email Addresses for Outlook 2016 – Windows 10

First Close Outlook. Next, Backup the Original ROAMCACHE Folder. Go to:
C:\Users\%username%\AppData\Local\Microsoft\Outlook\RoamCache
You can Rt-Click and Copy and paste this folder to a backup location if desired.

Now locate the MOST RECENT DAT file while in the Detailed File View mode
Stream_Autocomplete_*_.dat.
It should be fairly small. It's not full of your favorite email Addresses!

Next locate the Larger but recent DAT File and Rename it to the exact same name as the RECENT DAT file (which Outlook used today).

Copy the RENAMED larger DAT file to the the RoamCache Folder in
C:\Users\%username%\AppData\Local\Microsoft\Outlook\RoamCache

RE-BOOT the PC and Test Outlook. If it didn't WORK, Close Outlook and Retry this procedure as it is known to need a "second try" to sync up properly.

REMEMBER THIS PROCEDURE!

...and take steps to have a Backup Copy available should Outlook experience a reinstall or other repair that loses the AutoComplete popup List.
